

Tik Maynard Clinic Info

May 5-6, 2018

We are excited to welcome Tik Maynard to our farm. Tik is a renowned trainer that utilizes horsemanship, jumping and dressage training to develop young horses into internationally competitive three-day event horses. Tik focuses on a combination of groundwork, animal behavior and horsemanship to help riders understand how they can become better horsemen and develop a better competition horse. Tik is an accomplished equestrian. He has attended three World Championships and the 2007 Pan-American Games in Modern Pentathlon in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. He was on the Canadian Eventing Team from 2011- 2015. In 2014, Tik won the Indoor Eventing competition at the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto, and in 2015 he won the Freestyle at the Thoroughbred Makeover.

Clinic format:

- “How Horses Think” whiteboard talk 8:30-9:30
- Morning sessions will be on ground work
- Afternoon sessions will be jumping
- Both days will be different and one will build on the other, so attending both days will be the most beneficial for both horse and rider.
- Private, semi and group availability will be dependent on number of riders.
- Creating your own group and signing up together will ensure that you have the size you’d like.

Auditors welcome:

$20/ one day, $30/ both days
